To Whom it May Concern:

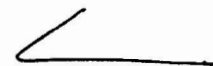

We were astonished! It is rare to find a business that actually delivers on all they advertise. The sale of the home at 1252 W. Mauretania, in Wilmington, California went flawlessly. The sale was finalized in just a few days, with no cost to us. Kevin and Anchor Seaport Escrow were in constant communication letting us know of the progress of the sale at every turn.

Kevin is a true professional. He is friendly and knowledgeable and is willing to help answer any questions that arise. Again, I can't stress enough how easy he made this process for us. We would HIGHLY recommend his services to anyone in the market to quickly sell a home. He is fair and honest, traits that are hard to come by in today's business climate.

Sincerely,

Christine Weaver
